Report of VAW-2025

In compliance of CVC directives and letter no. 025/VGL/059 dated 06th August, 2025, the Vigilance Awareness Week (VAW-2025) was observed in NIH from 27th Oct. – 2nd Nov., 2025. This year's theme was "Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility" ("सतर्कता :हमारी साझा ज़िम्मेदारी"). In this connection, various activities such as display of Posters in NIH Campus premises, Essay and Debate competitions for the NIH employees, drawing competition for the school children of NIH workforce, and Slogan completion for the residents of Roorkee city were organized. Different committees were constituted to carry out various activities during VAW-2025. Major activities undertaken during the week are briefly presented below.

- Director, NIH administered the Integrity Pledge to all the members of NIH HQ and its seven Regional Centres across the country on October 27, 2025. E-pledge was also taken by the employees.
- Banners and posters were displayed at various locations for spreading the message of integrity and transparency in daily life. Special banners related to PIDPI initiative were displayed along with VAW-2025 banners and its information was widely shared with all employees of NIH.
- A drawing competition for the children of NIH workforce was organized on October 29, 2025 at NIH. 40 children in three groups participated in the competition. The theme of VAW-2025 was kept as the topic for the competition.
- A debate competition for the NIH workforce was organized on October 31, 2025 at NIH. 8 participants took part in the competition. The topic of the debate competition was "Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility" (सतर्कता :हमारी साझा ज़िम्मेदारी).
- The essay competition for the NIH employees, project staff, daily wage staff was organized on October 29, 2025 at NIH. 11 participants took part in the competition. The topic of the essay competition was "Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility" (सतर्कता : हमारी साझा ज़िम्मेदारी).

- For spreading the message of the Vigilance Commission among the general public, a slogan competition on the theme of this year was organized for the general public of Roorkee and employees of NIH. An advertisement to this effect was made in some daily classifieds of Roorkee city. Slogans up to November 02, 2025 were invited and 77 slogans were received in the process.
- Valedictory function of VAW-2025 was organized on November 03, 2025 in NIH Auditorium. Dr. Tanuja Srivastava, Professor & CVO, IIT, Roorkee was the Chief Guest of the function. He along with Director, NIH distributed the prizes to the winners of various competitions.

- The Vigilance week was also celebrated in various Regional Centres of NIH.
- A copy of office circular showing various events along with topics, photographs of events, their results, and the prized slogans are attached herewith.
